

THE MONTCLAIR BIRD CLUB

QUIZ 174

February 5, 2023

Which bird species limited as a breeder to North America has been most widely recorded around the world??

Maybe this range map will help.

Link to ponder: Project FeederWatch highlights

THE ANSWER IS ON THE NEXT PAGE

Franklin gulls have wandered as far from their prairie breeding grounds as the Magellan Strait, the Falklands, Tristan de Cunha, Antarctica, Hawaii, the Bering Sea, Japan, China, India, Jordan, Kuwait, the United Arab Emirates, Australia, Senegal, The Gambia, France, and New Jersey.

Ornithological Quiz Master: Rick Wright
Assistant & Photographer: Sandy Sorkin

Southwest Wings

